

SHLOMO ISRAELI

Musicologist, lecturer and radio personality. Art Photographer.
An expert on classical music, contemporary music, jazz and world music.

Born: 05/18/1952 Jerusalem.

University High school graduate 1970.

Military service - aircraft Air Force Band + 1970-1973

Today: Teaches in the Department of Communication and Journalism at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, presented courses on music, serves as a consultant for festivals and organizations. Member of the music committee of the Ministry of Culture.

Artistic Photographer.

1973-1978

Studied musicology and literature at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

At the same time member of the Israel Police orchestra and writing reviews and articles on music to newspapers.

1976-2005

Worked in the IBA - Israel Broadcasting Authority.

His last position was Head of Music - "Voice of Music".

Retired early.

Edited and presented music programs, interviewing musicians from Israel and abroad, produced and broadcasted live concerts and served as IBA representative participated in international conferences.

1990 to today

During the period he taught at the Hebrew University, The Open University, the Academy of Music and Dance, at the training center of the Broadcasting Authority and other institutions.

Edited and produced a series of lectures and concerts at the Confederation house in Jerusalem, Beit Ariela in Tel Aviv, Tel Aviv Museum, Israel Museum in Jerusalem and elsewhere.

Initiated and directed by artistic festivals and music series, including the World Music Festival in Metulla, the series "One World", a festival of Jewish music and more.

Was an artistic consultant for the Israel Festival.

2010 to today

Artistic photographer.

Solo and group exhibitions in Israel and the world, including USA, Canada, Italy, Japan, England and more.

Current address: 15 A Efrata street, Jerusalem 9338415

+972-54-7982112

shlomois@gmail.com WEBSITE: shlomoisraeli.com